"Raices (Roots): An Exhibition of Photographs Celebrating Chandler's Hispanic Families" Honoring Hispanic Heritage Month

The Vision Gallery and the Chandler Center for the Arts are presenting the exhibition "Raices: A Photographic Exhibition Celebrating Chandler's Hispanic Families", August 19 – October 1, 2011.

The City of Chandler has curated a photographic history of Chandler's Hispanic families over the course of seven years, including historical biographies and historical photography.

The exhibition will be presented in two locations, at the Chandler Center for the Arts Exhibition Hall and the Vision Gallery in Chandler's City Hall complex. Both locations will highlight images and stories from Chandler's Hispanic families.

Join us for this exciting display of photographs, bringing back memories and celebrating the cultural contributions of the Hispanic Community.
